

Patti and I were blessed to be with many members of our family for the wedding of our oldest grandson. Ryan and Skylar were married on the 27th of May in a beautiful ceremony that I had the privilege and blessing to take part in.

Patti and I then left the 29th for NC to attend a Forgiven Ministry “One Day with God” in Wilkesboro, NC. On the right you can see one of the programs with Henry who lost his heart when he traded it to Satan so he could be happy. Do not worry, he found Jesus and got his heart, happiness, and security back and is now smiling and happy.

Here is a short recap of the event from the FM praise report.: “As a team of volunteers each of you contributed to making this camp a success. This was one of the largest camps we have had in NC in years (26 fathers and 43 children) ... We definitely praise God for His supernatural work of transforming lives! There were 6 souls who surrendered their lives to Christ at the Care Giver event, and we were told of 1 child who made a profession of faith. Thank you to those mentors who shared the Gospel with this young boy. Thank you to the Care Giver leaders and team of volunteers who served the families in the Name of Jesus!”

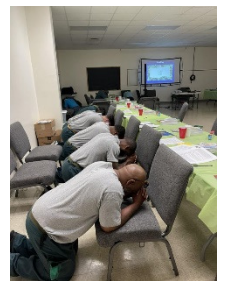

<http://forgivenministry.org> Dads praying during “Godly Dads” father training.

On the way to NC and back home we camped with our friends Kim and Trisha (left) at their ranch in GA. It is a beautiful ranch, and we love being with them at their beautiful home.

I received a letter from one of the dads from the Franklin Unit in Carrabelle, FL where we were in April: “I am down to 9 months before I go home so I am very excited, yet very nervous and concerned all at the same time. I’m praying that God will open up a door and opportunity for me to have a safe place to go to serve him and live a positive and productive life as a contributing member of society. So far I’m still not sure where I’m going to live or go. Please pray for me in that situation. I was blessed to talk to my son a few weeks ago. He’s excited for me to come home so he can see me. He’s graduating 4th grade in a week or two. I look forward to helping him as soon as I get myself together. He needs me.” Eddie Please pray for Eddie, his needs and time to move quickly.

Patti: As we see God move through these camps and other ministry opportunities, I am more and more aware of God’s faithfulness -The Gospel presentation that is part of all Joe’s programs, speaks to my heart each time telling me that we are where God wants us to be. Experiencing (at least) six adults come to a saving knowledge of Christ on Saturday through Joe’s invitation to pray the sinner’s prayer is beyond blessing. My personal prayer is to “pray” people out of hell. Thank you for allowing us to “stand in the gap” and share the Gospel wherever God sends us.

We will be at “The Mission of Hope” on Friday June 16th for “The Power of the Father’s Blessing” training and “Forgiven” ceremony for the residents. We head back to Georgia Re-Entry unit in July in Atlanta for another Forgiven Ministry “One Day with God.”

My daily scripture from Herb Fisher speaks to me. “And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.” Gal 6:9

www.JoeMcDonaldMinistry.org

Joe McDonald Ministry Inc. is a 501(c)(3) Charitable Organization and is donation supported.
PO Box 91275 Mobile, AL. 36691

a Ministry of Evangelism, Encouragement and Education