

Joe McDonald Ministry

Isaiah 6:8

The Evangelism Trail –November 2023

Patti and I just returned from 17 days of ministry time on the road with a little visiting time along the way. We spent some time with our son Sean and his family in Alexander City, AL. We celebrated our 52nd anniversary in Columbus, GA with our ministry partners and friends Kim and Trisha Mobley from Hamilton, GA and the 4M Ranch.

We made it home in time for me to attend Herb Fisher’s weekly bible study. Herb always allows me to update the men on our most recent trip and event. (next paragraph) Our supporters I want to tell you this year, our 20th year in full time ministry, we have seen more men, women and youth accept Jesus into their lives than anytime in the past 25+ years. There seems to be a great hunger for God’s peace and comfort through Jesus Christ. Not sure what has changed, unless as God’s Word says “as it was in the days of Noah”, which clearly we seem to be now. As the late Ed Keyes once said about us and the church: “My house is full, but my fields are empty.” Now is the time for the church to take to the fields, the harvest is ripe.

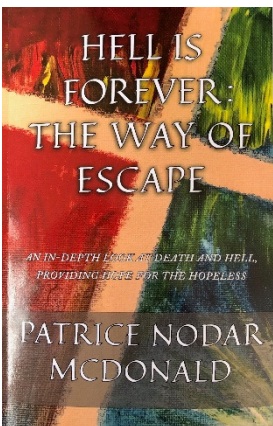

Back to the ministry event. We ended up in Taylorsville, NC for a Forgiven Ministry “One Day with God” for 30 children, 21 fathers and 17 caregivers. We were in the Alexander Max CI for the first time since 2018. God blessed us with His presence and many lives of men, women and children were forever changed through the “One Day with God” event. Pictured here are Founders Jack and Scottie Barnes with some of the team after church Sunday.

On the way home, we stayed once again at Kim and Trisha’s 4M ranch. Kim, a former professional rodeo and all around cowboy, gave me a roping lesson and the equipment to practice with. A dream I have had for such a long time comes true!

The Gospel Parade float will roll again in Mobile, Alabama! December 2nd is the parade in Tillman's Corner. December 9th is the Dawes Parade starting at Surge Church! We already have some out-of-town ministry partners as well as our children and grands coming to help! Thank you for your donations of money and goods to make these the best Christmas parades yet!

Patti: My (new) book had some page design errors on the first offering and the launch was suspended to get them fixed, in the meantime, if you ordered one from Amazon and the title on the cover is cut off, let us know and we will send (free of charge) a replacement book. The message is all there, however, just the format is wrong. Please be sure to order one or ten if you haven't already! Thank you for your support!

"The Gospel Parade" is my children's book, just right for that book present for Christmas for new readers or "read to" toddlers. Search "books by Patrice McDonald" on Amazon. Joe and I give this book away when we travel, campgrounds, etc., as the Lord leads, as well as sharing the message in parades with "The Gospel Parade" float.

A third publication, available now is the thirteenth volume of the "Sunsets on Mobile Bay." (2024 Calendar.) Our friend and award-winning photographer, Tomme Peterson, has again graciously provided his beautiful photos of Mobile Sunsets, taken from the Eastern Shore. This is the thirteenth year and the most beautiful yet! JMM gets a $2.00 donation after printing costs. You will find a link on our Facebook pages, or my website, professionalmom.com. Another great Christmas present! Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family. Give thanks for all God’s blessings and pray for Israel! Remember normal isn’t coming back, Jesus is!
