Isaiah 6:8

The Evangelism Trail –January 2024

Joe McDonald Ministry, December 2023

We would like to personally thank you for sharing the love of Jesus in our annual Christmas parade.

We could not have had such a good parade without you guys. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Southwest Mobile County Chamber of Commerce

In two Christmas parades with “The Gospel Parade” float, we put in the hands of men, women and children almost 6,000 pieces of scriptural information about forgiveness, Hell, Jesus and salvation. Kim and Trisha Mobley from GA came and helped us with the parade prep and parade, along with the D. Fenny family, C. Murray, our children, grandchildren and their friend Kingston, they were a huge help as we could not have done it without them!

Again this year we helped “Case de Pan” of Contico Nuevo Church in Tegucigalpa, Honduras with their Christmas gift buying for the children and families in their feeding program. Here is a picture of 93 gifts given December 15th for children. This doesn’t show all the gifts or children and families given a meal as their Christmas gift. Thanks to you we were able to increase our donation this year more than the past several years.

We had several Christmas events to attend for our grandchildren at schools and church. We had quite a crowd for Christmas day as you can see from this photo, even with almost half our out of town family not able to be here this year. We did have many of our grandchildren, their spouses and great grandchildren here as you can see.

We helped our church, Luke 4:18, provide blessing bags to Pasco and Home of Grace Thanksgiving 2023, which included shampoo and other personal items for their clients.

We thank God for our Board that allows us to tithe 15% of our income to help a number of people and organizations like Casa de Pan share the love of Jesus through our tithes.

With your financial help and prayers, Joe McDonald Ministry was able to finish our 20th year of full-time ministry with a rich harvest of souls and many seeds planted for a needy, hungry world.
