“The Evangelism Trail” for June 2026

Our mission statement is: “To share the good news of Jesus Christ wherever God sends us.”

Patti, daughter Andrea, and I travelled to Dallas, TX last month to see our grandson JJ Price graduate from Trinity Christian School. JJ is the son of our daughter Sarah and husband John Price. It was a wonderful event with all his family in attendance, including all grandparents on both sides pictured here. So proud of JJ. He will attend Dallas

Baptist University starting this fall! The next weekend Patti, daughter Andrea, and great granddaughter Peyton traveled to Alexander City, AL to see granddaughter Mikaela McDonald graduate from Benjamin Russell High School. Mikeala is the oldest daughter of our son Sean pictured here with the Mobile family. Mikaela will attend the University of Mobile this fall. We are so proud of these two and know God will have his hand on them both and have a bright future.

We are midway through our 23rd year of full-time ministry. Looking back the past 25 years, I never dreamed at this stage of our lives could recall the many places and people we have shared the “good news” with and made friends in so many far away places. We traveled all over the United States in prisons, schools, youth summer camps, camps for the children of inmates, foster kid’s homes, and churches. We have been “approved by God” to do the same all over Mexico, Central and South America, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, Nigeria, South Africa, the Island of Cyprus, Thailand, and Mongolia. Brazil last year, Romania 2026!

Son Joe and I were at the Mission of Hope in May for “Power of the Father’s Blessing” training for 45+ men.

Patti says:

Joe McDonald Ministry is so grateful for all of our faithful supporters who are responsible for getting us to many opportunities to share Christ and responsible for many changed lives! You do what you do, we do what we do! So, as we continue our mission, we have opened up the donation process to include Venmo giving, actually at the request of some potential and regular donors. (Venmo deducts approx 3% fee from your donation,) We will continue our email letters with the QR Code (left) and snail mail is always available, on request, with mail back envelopes. We are here because of your generous giving! Thank you!

Pray with us about an opportunity to minister in Romania this fall. We also have several prison events coming up and will fill you in next month! Jesus is Lord!
